

Further details on the conference

The Kick-off Conference of EACT will take place in the region of Lower Austria, starting in the evening of 19 September 2011 with an official reception and a welcome dinner. In the course of the event, representatives of European and international organizations as well as anti-corruption authorities will examine the phenomenon of corruption and its effects.

The topics of prevention, investigation and prosecution, as well as international cooperation will be explored at the conference and dealt with in detail in the working group meetings held in 2012.

After a presentation of the activities planned for these working groups, the Kick-off Conference will end in the evening of 23 September 2011.

Accommodation and transfer:

On 19 and 24 September 2011, the transfer between the airport or railway station in Vienna and the hotel in Baden, situated approximately 20km south of Vienna, will be provided by the organizer. Please note that flight and accommodation costs (max. 119 Euros per night, including breakfast) have to be met by the participants. The cost of full board during the conference as well as the seminar fees will be covered by the organizer.
